FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 11, 1859.

CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

This Company commenced issuing Policies gainst loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering propeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid pects system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be unitually chosen by the insured and the Company. N. E. A WORD OF EXPLANATION those who have known us under the style of Evans t Co. The business located by us at No. 67 Broadway, New York City, is the eldest established house in the country, and is known world-wide as the original "EVANS & CO.'S GIFT BOOK STORE." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity, to advertise under the same name, to increase their trade—to protect the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, is the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law. D. W. EVANS & CO., 677 Broadway, New York

TO MY DEPARTED SISTER. BY ELVIRA R. CLOSE. When the sunset's glow is fading.
From the pale and distant west,
And the bird's sweet song is dying,
As she seeks her lonely nest—

When the evening star is shining, In the quiet summer's sky, I will think of thee, dear sister, I will deem thy spirit nigh.

When the wintry winds are howling, Nightly o'er the dreary plain, And the moon-beams, cold and cheerless,

Fitful pierce the cloudy train, When our favourite tree is mourning To the blast that murmurs by, I will think of thee, dear sister,

I will deem thy spirit nigh. When the autumn breeze is sighing, Softly o'er the dying flowers, And the forest leaves are changing. Through the long and sober hours-

When the lonely insects murmur, To the winds their evening cry I will think of thee, dear sister, I will deem thy spirit nigh. And when God's bright angels bear me, Far beyond the bounds of time,

And our spirits meet and mingle, In you starry heights sublime-When in those fair realms of glory, Mid the rolling spheres on high, May I meet thee, then, dear sister,

Alexandria, Va., July 7th, 1859. A CURIOUS FACT, IF TRUE.

Cass county, Michigan, immediately west 30 00 of Constantine, is dotted by lakes strung upon threads of water, which link them together for miles in extent. It has been discovered that they contained whitefish, pre-cisely the same fish that has so long been captured in our large lakes, and salted for market. They have been steadily increasing from year to year, until quite large hauls are made, and offered for sale in the village markets. These fish, then very small, came in our midst some ten years ago, upon the wings of a tremendous storm that swept with fury over Cass county, and they fell, some upon land and some upon water, and were found gasping upon land after the storm was spent, by many persons who were in its track. They went up from Lake Michigan, probably, in a waterspout. The seed was well sown, and the crop is a continual one to all persons in the vicinity of these lakes. RECEIPT FOR MAKING TATTLERS. Take a handful of the vine called Runabout, the same quantity of the root called Nimble Tongue, a sprig of the herb called Backbite, at either before or after the dog days, a table-spoonful of Don't-you-tell-it, six drachms of Malice, a few drops of Envy -which can be purchased in any quantity at the shop of Miss Tabitha Teatable and Miss Fanny Night-walker. Stir them well together and simmer them for half an hour over the fire of Discontent, kindled with a little Jealousy; then strain it through the rag of Misconstruction, hang it upon a skein of Streetyarn, shake it occasionally for a few days, and it is fit for use. Let a few drops be taken just before walking out, and the subject will be enabled to speak all manner of evil, and that continually .- Macon Mes. LOTTERY ADVERTISEMENT. WOOD EDDY & CO'S
